3. PRINCIPLES AND CONDITIONS REGARDING THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

3.1. Principles Regarding the Processing of Personal Data

Your personal data is processed by the Company in accordance with the personal data processing principles in Article 4 of the Law. These principles must be complied with in respect of each personal data processing activity:

- Processing of personal data in accordance with the law and good faith; The Company acts in accordance with the laws, secondary regulations and general principles of law in the processing of your personal data; attaches importance to processing personal data limited to the purpose of processing and taking into account the reasonable expectations of data subjects.
- Personal data is accurate and up-to-date; Care is taken to ensure that your personal data processed by the company is up-to-date and that relevant controls are carried out. In this context, data owners are given the right to request the correction or deletion of their inaccurate and outdated data.

- Processing of personal data for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes; Before each personal data processing activity, the Company determines the purposes of data processing and makes sure that these purposes are not unlawful.
- Personal data is connected, limited and measured for the purpose for which it is processed; The data processing activity by the Company is limited to the personal data necessary for the realization of the purpose of collection, and necessary steps are taken to prevent the processing of personal data that is not related to this purpose.
- Storing personal data for the period required by the legislation or processing purposes; After the disappearance of the purpose of processing personal data by the company or with the expiry of the period stipulated in the legislation, personal data is deleted, destroyed or anonymized.

3.2. Conditions Regarding the Processing of Personal Data

Your personal data is processed by the Company in the presence of at least one of the personal data processing conditions in Article 5 of the Law. Explanations regarding these conditions are given below:

- In cases where the personal data owner has explicit consent and other data processing conditions do not exist, in accordance with the general principles under heading 3.1, the personal data of the data owner can be processed by the Company with the free will of the data owner, with sufficient information about the personal data processing activity, without hesitation and limited to that transaction only.
- If the personal data processing activity is clearly stipulated in the laws, personal data may be processed by the Company without the explicit consent of the data owner. In this case, the Company will process personal data within the framework of the relevant legal regulation.
- In the event that the explicit consent of the data owner cannot be obtained due to actual impossibility and personal data processing is mandatory, the personal data of the data owner who is unable to disclose his consent by the Company or whose consent cannot be validated will be processed if personal data processing is mandatory in order to protect the life or physical integrity of the data owner or a third party.
- In the event that the personal data processing activity is directly related to the establishment or performance of a contract, the personal data processing activity will be carried out if it is necessary to process the personal data of the parties to the contract established or already signed between the data owner and the Company.
- In the event that it is necessary to carry out personal data processing activities in order to fulfill the legal obligation of the data controller, the Company processes personal data in order to fulfill its legal obligations stipulated within the scope of the applicable legislation.
- The fact that the data owner has made his personal data public, the personal data that has been disclosed to the public by the data owner in any way, and which has been made public as a result of being made public, may be processed by the Company even without the explicit consent of the data owners, limited to the purpose of publicization.
- In the event that personal data processing is mandatory for the establishment, exercise or protection of a right, the Company may process the personal data of the data owner without the explicit consent of the data owners within the scope of obligation.
- Provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data owner, if data processing is mandatory for the legitimate interests of the data controller , personal data may be processed by the Company, provided that the balance of interests of the Company and the data owner is observed. In this context, in the processing of data based on legitimate interest, the Company first determines the legitimate interest to be obtained as a result of the processing activity. It evaluates the possible impact of the processing of personal data on the rights and freedoms of the data owner and carries out the processing activity if it is of the opinion that the balance is not disturbed.
